A PLEASANT ENTERTAINER

is "Boss" McLaughlin, the Veteran Brooklyn Politician.

"Boss" Hugh McLaughlin, of Brooklyn, seems to be enjoying his second winter in Daytona even more than his previous visit. At the Grand Atlantic, pleasantly quartered with his party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Courtney, Master Hugh McLaughlin Courtney, Mrs. Edw. Simmons, Miss Dorothy Simmons, John Courtney, T. F. Courtney, Miss Courtney and Miss Coffey, the winter is passing pleasantly to the great politician.

Often he may be found in the sun parlor of the hotel surrounded by a group of eager listeners relating anecdotes and personal experiences. During the evenings he sits upon the piazza watching the moonbeams flitting upon the Halifax, or sits in the hotel office watching the dancers and merry makers. He takes great delight at cards, and holds his own with any of the guests at crib or euchre, his favorite games. Contrary to his usual custom, Mr. McLaughlin has not been on a fishing expedition this season, but he is planning for a day of sport in the near future.

STETSON VOTED OUT.

No Longer President of the Board of Trustees of Stetson University.

The annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Stetson University was held at DeLand last Thursday. There were present John B. Stetson, Dr. J. F. Forbes, Dr. W. N. Chandon, J. T. Clarke, H. A. DeLand, D. U. Fletcher, A. G. Hamlin, J. B. Lave, F. J. Longdon, David Moore, F. B. Moodie, E. O. Painter, T. J. Sparkman, W. H. Stewart, H. B. Stevens, E. B. Solomon, J. S. Turner and S. B. Wright.

The meeting was an interesting one, and of much importance. The report of the president was read and filed. It revealed a prosperous condition of the school. There are more students registered than ever before, and the work is in an advanced condition. The school is self-sustaining, except for the additional expenses incident to the opening of the school of technology, and the expenses of that department have been arranged for. The manual training department, the wood working shops and the department of domestic science are well attended. The reports of the treasurer and of the finance board show a very satisfactory condition of the finances. The election of officers was held at a late hour that night, and resulted in the election of Rev. W. H. Chandon as president of the board, and Rev. T. J. Sparkman as vice-president.

Mr. Stetson was voted out as president of the board of trustees by a majority vote, and personally congratulated his successor, Dr. W. N. Chandon. The minority on the board have entered their protests, and gone on record in voting against the actions of the board. At the meeting a petition was presented by Frank E. Bond from the business men and citizens of DeLand, urging the board to make a change in the presidency. This was presented by the minority members and voted down. It is expected that further action will follow the work of this meeting.

An administration committee was created, to whom is entrusted the detail work of the running of the university, the employment of teachers, and the expenditure of the funds. This committee, consisting of Dr. J. F. Forbes, Rev. T. J. Sparkman, Rev. W. H. Stewart, D. U. Fletcher, E. O. Painter, J. T. Clarke and S. B. Wright, were elected.

Messes Barlow and Hart, two prominent gentlemen of Waterbury, Conn., are at the Ridgewood. Mr. Barlow was at Daytona ten years ago, and has been going to other parts of the State ever since. He says Daytona exceeds any town in Florida for beauty.

BRAHMA
By Ralph W. Emerson

If the red slayer think he slays,
Or if the slain think he is slain,
They know not well the subtle ways
I keep, and pass, and turn again.

Far or forget to me is near;
Shadow and sunlight are the same;
The vanished gods to me appear;
And one to me are shame and fame.

They reckon ill who leave me out;
When me they fly, I am the wings;
I am the doubter and the doubt,
And I the hymn the Brahmin sings.

The strong gods pile for my abode,
And pine in vain the sacred Seven;
But thou, meek lover of the good!
Find me, and turn thy back on heaven.

Now we maun totter down, John,
But hand in hand we'll go;
And sleep thegither at the foot,
